Annual Index: vol. 35/2004

Titles:

Adversarial safety analysis; Borrowing the methods of security vulnerability assessments. Johnston, R. G. 35(3), 245–248.

The airline lifesaver: A 17-year analysis of a technique to prompt the delivery of a safety message. Geller, E. S., Hickman, J. S., & Pettinger, C. B. 35(4), 357–366.

Antecedents of fatigue, close calls, and crashes among commercial motor-vehicle drivers. Morrow, P. C., & Crum, M. R. 35(1), 59–69.

Are adolescent driving rules set in stone? Origin, flexibility, and consequences for violations of driving rules. Hartos, J., Shattuck, T., Simons-Morton, B., & Beck, K. 35(5), 547–555.

Blasting injuries in surface mining with emphasis on flyrock and blast area security. Bajpayee, T. S., Rehak, T. R., Mowrey, G. L., & Ingram, D. K. 35(1), 47–57.

Can social psychological models be used to promote bicycle helmet use among teenagers? A comparison of the health belief model, theory of planned behavior and the locus of control. Lajunen, T., & Rasanen, M. 35(1), 115–123.

Computer-based training for food services workers at a hospital. Eckerman, D. A., Abrahamson, K., Ammerman, T., Fercho, H., Rohlman, D. S., & Anger, W. K. 35(3), 317–327.

The contribution of focus groups in the evaluation of hearing conservation program (HCP) effectiveness. Prince, M. M., Colligan, M. J., Stephenson, C. M., & Bischoff, B. J. 35(1), 91–106.

CSHM: Web-based safety and health monitoring system for construction management. Cheung, S. O., Cheung, K. K. W., & Suen, H. C. H. 35(2), 159–170.

Creating safer workplaces: Assessing the determinants and role of safety climate. DeJoy, D. M., Schaffer, B. S., Wilson, M. G., Vandenberg, R. J., & Butts, M. M. 35(1), 81–90.

Crisis management of SARS in a hospital. Wu, D., Yang, L.-C., & Wu, S. -S. 35(3), 345–349.

A cross-validation of safety climate scale using confirmatory factor analytic approach. Seo, D. -C., Torabi, M. R., Blair, E. H., & Ellis, N. T. 35(4), 427–445.

Disability among adults injured in motor-vehicle crashes in the United States. Shults, R. S., Jones, B. H., Kresnow, M., & Langlois, J. A. 35(4), 447–452.

Documenting the sustainability of a mature Click It or Ticket program: The North Carolina experience. Reinfurt, D. W. 35(2) 181–188.

Effectiveness of primary enforcement safety belt laws and enhanced enforcement of safety belt laws: A summary of the guide to community preventive services systematic reviews. Shults, R. A., Nichols, J. L., Dinh-Zarr, T. B., Sleet, D. A., & Elder, R. W. 35(2), 189–196.

The effect of earned and paid media strategies in high visibility enforcement campaigns. Milano, M., McInturff, B., & Nichols, J. L. 35(2), 203–214.

Effect of loss control service on reported injury incidence. Nave, M., & Veltri, A. 35(1), 39–46.

Effects of California graduated driver licensing program. Rice, T. M., Peek-Asa, C., & Kraus, J. F. 35(4), 375–381.

The effects of ergonomics training on the knowledge, attitudes, and practices of teleworkers. Harrington, S. S., & Walker, B. L. 35(1), 13–22.

Effects of naturalistic cell phone conversations on driving performance. Rakauskas, M. E., Gugerty, L. J., & Ward, N. J. 35(4), 453–464.

Effects of safety belt laws on safety belt use by American High School Seniors, 1986–2000. O'Malley, P. M., & Wagenaar, A. C. 35(1), 125–130.

The ergonomics of children in playground equipment safety. Roderick, L. M. 35(3), 249–254.

Evaluation of California's graduated driver licensing program. Masten, S., & Hagge, R. 35(5) 523–535.

An evaluation of scaffold safety at construction sites. Halperin, K. M., & McCann, M. 35(2), 141–150.

An examination of the characteristics and traffic risks of drivers suspended/revoked for different reasons. DeYoung, D. J., & Gebers, M. A. 35(3), 287–295.

Exploratory analysis of the safety climate and safety behavior relationship. Cooper, M. D., & Phillips, R. A. 35(5), 497–512.

doi:10.1016/S0022-4375(04)00114-8

Factorial structure of recklessness: To what extent are older drivers different? Monterde i Bort. H. 35(3), 329–335.
Factors affecting children's participation and amount of labor on family farms. Kim, J., & Zepeda, L. 35(4), 391–401.
Factors related to seat belt use among fatally injured teenage drivers. McCartt, A. T., & Northrup, V. S. 35(1), 29–38.
Farm fatalities to youth 1995–2000: A comparison by age groups. Goldcamp, M., Hendricks, K. J., & Myers, J. R. 35(2), 151–157.
Graduated driver licensing research in 2003 and beyond. Hedlund, J., & Compton, R. 35(1), 5–11.
Graduated driver licensing restrictions: Awareness, compliance, and enforcement in North Carolina. Goodwin, A. H. & Foss, R. D. 35(4), 367–374.
Have young workers more injuries than older ones? A literature review. Salminen, S. 35(5), 513–521.
High visibility safety apparel and nighttime conspicuity of pedestrians in work zones. Sayer, J., & Mefford, M. L. 35(5), 537–546.
Increasing the safety of children's vehicle travel: From effective risk communication to behavior change. Will, K. E. & Geller, E. S. 35(3), 263–274.
Investigating factors that influence individual safety behavior at work. Mullen, J. 35(3), 275–285.
Michigan's graduated driver licensing program: Evaluation of the first four years. Shope, J. T., & Molnar, L. J. 35(3), 337–344.
Ninety five percent: An evaluation of law, policy, and programs to promote seat belt use in Washington State. Salzberg, P. M., & Moffat, J. M. 35(2), 215–222.
Occupant restraint use in Canada. Boase, P., Jonah, B. A., & Dawson, N. 35(2), 223–229.
On road measures of pedestrians' estimates of their own nighttime conspicuity. Tyrrel, R., Wood, J., & Carberry, T. 35(5), 483–490.
Organizational influence on working people's occupational noise protection in Hong Kong. Cheung-C. -K. 35(4), 465–475.
Preferred surface microscopic geometric features on floors as potential interventions for slip and fall accidents on liquid contaminated surfaces. Chang, W. -R. 35(1), 71–79.
Prevalence of low back pain in three occupational groups in Shanghai, People's Republic of China. Jin, K., Sorock, G. S., & Courtney, T. K. 35(1), 23–28.
Problem driver remediation: A meta-analysis of the driver improvement literature. Masten, S. V., & Peck, R. C. 35(4), 403–425.
Project safety as a sustainable competitive advantage. Rechenthin, D. 35(3), 297–308.
Recent estimates of safety belt use. Glassbrenner, D., & Carra, J. S. 35(2), 237–244.
The relationship between perceived risk of being ticketed and self-reported seat belt use. Chaudhary, N. K., & Solomon, M. G. 35(4), 383–390.
A research agenda for increasing safety belt use in the United States. Hedlund, J., Preusser, D. F., & Shults, R. A. 35(2), 231–235.
Road safety is no accident. Sleet, D. A., & Branche, C. M. 35(2), 173–174.
The role of enforcement programs in increasing seat belt use. Williams, A. F., & Wells, J. K. 175–180.
Safety beliefs and safe behavior among Midwestern college students. Blair, E. H., Seo, D. -C., Torabi, M. R., & Kaldahl, M. A. 35(2), 131–140.
The Swedish driver licensure examination: exploration of a two-stage model. Wolming, S. 35(5), 491–495.
Taking the Click It or Ticket model nationwide. Solomon, M. G., Compton, R. P., & Preusser, D. F. 35(2), 197–201.
Tribute to Patricia Fossum Waller. Campbell, B. J., Shults, R., Rinehart, C., & Sleet, D. 35(1), 1–3.
Types and characteristics of ramp-related motor vehicle crashes on urban interstate roadways in Northern Virginia. McCartt, A., Northrup, V. S., & Retting, R. A. 35(1), 107–114.
Using state administrative data to study nonfatal worker injuries: Challenges and opportunities. Johantgen, M., Trinkoff, A., Gray-Siracusa, K., Muntaner, C., & Nielsen, K. 35(3), 309–315.
Validation of the propensity for angry driving scale. Dahlen, E., & Ragan, K. 35(5), 557–563.
Whole-body vibration and postural stress among operators of construction equipment: A literature review. Kittusamy, N. K., & Buchholz, B. 35(3), 255–261.
